MPPOA statement on today's MN Senate hearing on Lawlessness Report

(St. Paul, Minn.) – Today the MN Senate held a joint committee hearing to review the recently released report on Lawlessness and Government Responses to Minnesota's 2020 Riots.

MPPOA Executive Director Brian Peters issued the following statement: “Public safety officials appreciate the Senators who participated in today's hearing who prioritize the safety and security of Minnesotans. This report and discussion on how not to repeat the unprecedented violence and rioting that occurred in the Twin Cities this summer, is essential.
